

IFL 304 – Pastoral Care
Across the Lifespan
Fall 2017
www.instituteforlearningvtnh.org

All church members can benefit from this course to learn how to be more effective in church visitations and support of church members.

This course is for deacons and other church members involved in visitations as well as for those who are pastors or who are interested in becoming pastors.

You will be involved in doing more than talking and will have an opportunity to talk about your experiences with a supporting pastor or counselor. A total of 20 hours of visitation is required as an integral part of this course. Reflections on your visits will help you to learn from your experiences and be more effective in the future.

Let the instructor know if you have a pastor or counselor who you plan to work with or if you need help finding one.

Dates for the course –

All classes will go from 9 am to 1 pm and will be held on the following dates:
September 16th
September 23rd
October 7th
October 21st
November 4th
November 18th

Cost of the course –

IFL course costs are $250 per course. Scholarship money is available for every other course through the Northern Baptist Educational Society for those people participating in the Certified Lay Minister program.

The Instructor –

Rev. Cliff Vendt, MAPC has been a pastor for xxx years and has been active in pastoral counseling. Cliff is also active on the board of the Institute for Learning. Cliff's contact info is – cliffvendt@aol.com
603-651-1073

Text:

The text for the course is “Christian Counseling: a Comprehensive Guide, 3rd Edition” by Gary R. Collins. It was published by Nelson in 2007, ISBN 13 9-781-4185-0329-1

IFL 304 – Pastoral Care
Across the Lifespan
Fall 2017
www.instituteforlearningvtnh.org

All church members can benefit from this course to learn how to be more effective in church visitations and support of church members.

This course is for deacons and other church members involved in visitations as well as for those who are pastors or who are interested in becoming pastors.

You will be involved in doing more than talking and will have an opportunity to talk about your experiences with a supporting pastor or counselor. A total of 20 hours of visitation is required as an integral part of this course. Reflections on your visits will help you to learn from your experiences and be more effective in the future.

Let the instructor know if you have a pastor or counselor who you plan to work with or if you need help finding one.

Dates for the course –

All classes will go from 9 am to 1 pm
and will be held on the following dates:

September 16th

September 23rd

October 7th

October 21st

November 4th

November 18th

Cost of the course –

IFL course costs are $250 per course.

Scholarship money is available for every other course through the Northern Baptist Educational Society for those people participating in the Certified Lay Minister program.

The Instructor –

Rev. Cliff Vendt, MAPC has been a pastor for xxx years and has been active in pastoral counseling. Cliff is also active on the board of the Institute for Learning. Cliff's contact info is –

cliffvendt@aol.com

603-651-1073

Text:

The text for the course is "Christian Counseling: a Comprehensive Guide, 3rd Edition" by Gary R. Collins. It was published by Nelson in 2007, ISBN 13 9-781-4185-0329-1

IFL 304 – Pastoral Care Across the Lifespan Fall 2017

www.instituteforlearningvtnh.org

All church members can benefit from this course to learn how to be more effective in church visitations and support of church members.

This course is for deacons and other church members involved in visitations as well as for those who are pastors or who are interested in becoming pastors.

You will be involved in doing more than talking and will have an opportunity to talk about your experiences with a supporting pastor or counselor. A total of 20 hours of visitation is required as an integral part of this course.

Reflections on your visits will help you to learn from your experiences and be more effective in the future.

Let the instructor know if you have a pastor or counselor who you plan to work with or if you need help finding one.

Dates for the course –

All classes will go from 9 am to 1 pm
and will be held on the following dates:

September 16th

September 23rd

October 7th

October 21st

November 4th

November 18th

Cost of the course –

IFL course costs are $250 per course.

Scholarship money is available for every other course through the Northern Baptist Educational Society for those people participating in the Certified Lay Minister program.

The Instructor –

Rev. Cliff Vendt, MAPC has been a pastor for xxx years and has been active in pastoral counseling. Cliff is also active on the board of the Institute for Learning. Cliff's contact info is –

cliffvendt@aol.com

603-651-1073

Text:

The text for the course is "Christian Counseling: a Comprehensive Guide, 3rd Edition" by Gary R. Collins. It was published by Nelson in 2007, ISBN 13 9-781-4185-0329-1